

Dear Sir/Madam,

Universiti Tun Hussein Onn Malaysia (UTHM) is proud to host the fourth annual 2011

Malaysian Technical Universities International Conference on Engineering and Technology (MUiCET 2011). The conference themed “Globalising Engineering and Technology for Sustainable Transformation is technically co-sponsored by Malaysian Technical Universities Network (MTUN) . Aimed at bringing together local and international researchers in the fields of engineering and technology, this conference seeks to reduce distance barriers whilst paving way for future research collaborations. In light of this matter, UTHM extends her hand and cordially invites academicians, scientists, engineers and students from academia, industry and government to participate in this conference.

We are soliciting original papers describing the state-of-the-art research and development inclusive (but are not limited to) the following technical areas:
