

In order to ensure that research activities are carried out effectively, a holistic research policy has been d

- 1) Academic staff are encouraged to actively involve in research activities through any relevant center o
- 2) Research activities conducted by researchers should fall under research clusters developed by the u
- 3) Researchers shall avoid the rules, regulations as well as University's Code of ethics imposed by the u
- 4) Researchers are encouraged to do collaborative research works with other research institutions or o
- 5) Research outcomes shall be fully governed by the Intellectual Property Policy of the University.